and relevance of Undergraduate Programs. The Director will meet with prospective students and parents to discuss the program, advise students throughout their time at Lally, oversee the scheduling of all undergraduate courses, interact with Career Services to ensure students are provided adequate counseling and support for life after Rensselaer, and work to promote a vigorous Lally student culture and community. In addition, the Undergraduate Director will monitor the undergraduate program curriculum and extra-curricular activities to insure the School is delivering the most up-to-date, responsive education possible. The position also includes teaching responsibilities of two courses per year.
