Job Description

The University of Central Florida Department of Marketing invites applications for a faculty position at the rank of Professor. Start date is flexible. Area of research interest for the position is open. Department teaching needs are in digital media marketing, consumer behavior, marketing analytics, and others. Demonstrated success in delivering MBA courses is highly desirable, as is experience in mentoring PhD students.

This position was created as a result of a major strategic hiring initiative by the University. A doctoral degree from an accredited institution, either in Marketing or a closely-related field, is required. Candidates must possess a portfolio of research in marketing and currently be engaged in an active research program in the field, with a strong record of publication productivity appropriate to Professor rank requirements at UCF. This would necessarily include placements in top journals in the field, e.g., JM, JMR, JCR, Marketing Science, etc. Position number is 33234.

UCF requires applications and supporting documents to be submitted online through the Human Resources website, <https://www.jobswithucf.com>. Please upload a cover letter, vita, and three current letters of reference (less than 6 months old). NOTE: Have all documents ready when applying so they can be attached at that time. Once the online submission process is finalized, the system does not allow applicants to submit additional documents at a later date.

Please contact Dr. Ronald E. Michaels if you have questions (rmichaels@ucf.edu). Consideration of applicants will begin immediately; however, applications will be accepted until the position is closed. The College of Business
