Job Description

Position Overview

The School of Business at the University of Kansas is searching for an open rank Professor in Finance for the 2018-19 academic year. The search is open at the Assistant, Associate or Full Professor level. Appointment at a particular level will be based on an applicant's scholarly and teaching record. This is a full-time, tenure-track position beginning August 18, 2018.

The University of Kansas is especially interested in hiring faculty members who can contribute to four key campus-wide strategic initiatives: (1) Sustaining the Planet, Powering the World; (2) Promoting Well-Being, Finding Cures; (3) Building Communities, Expanding Opportunities; and (4) Harnessing Information, Multiplying Knowledge. For more information, see <http://www.provost.ku.edu/planning/themes/>.

Job Description

40% Teach a combination of required and elective finance courses at the Undergraduate, MBA, and Ph.D. level.

40% Conduct and publish research in a quantity and quality commensurate with the University of Kansas's status as a Carnegie I research university.

20% Perform service for the School, University, and academic profession and interact effectively with students, faculty, and the business community

Required Qualifications

A PhD in finance or anticipated completion of doctorate by August 2018.

A proven record or demonstrated high potential in research and publications.

A clear ability to teach effectively at undergraduate, MBA, and Ph.D. levels.

Evaluation of these requirements will be made through (1) letter of application describing experience and accomplishments; (2) record of productivity in teaching, research and service as noted in CV; (3) research statement and supplemental materials (e.g., publications); (4) teaching statement and supplemental materials (teaching portfolio, sample syllabi, teaching evaluations); (5) information provided by three professional references.
