Job Description

The Centre for Integrative Innovation Management C*I2M at the Department of Marketing & Management, University of Southern Denmark invites applications for one or more positions as Post Docs in Integrative Innovation Management. The positions are vacant from August 2018 or soon after.

The research is directly connected to our research projects on innovation management, which are carried out in close collaboration with businesses and other research institutions. It is therefore preferable if the candidate has experience with company related research and has strong method competencies within qualitative methods. As the project is carried out with Danish companies it is preferred if the candidate is fluent in the Danish language. If not, the candidate must show a commitment to learn Danish within the employment period. Work related to our other research projects is also expected.

More broadly, the research group focuses on three key research areas;

1. From Business models to innovative ecosystems & New technologies
2. Digitalization, innovation and new industrial systems.
3. Managing innovation for new business opportunities

The position is primarily related to area 3.

The Centre for Integrative Innovation Management (C*I2M) is part of the Department for Marketing & Management. See the department website <http://www.sdu.dk/IMM> for further information.

The C*I2M is a cross-disciplinary and highly international research Centre focusing on meeting the societal demands for strengthening the innovative capabilities and processes of firms and industry. We adopt a cross-disciplinary approach because understanding and promotion of innovation from the initial idea to the fully commercialized or implemented innovation requires the combination of engineering, management and marketing. For more information on the Centre please visit our website.

You can only apply for the position through our website www.sdu.dk/en/service/ledige_stillinger.

Your application must be registered in our system on the 05/02/2018 at 23.59.59 CET at the latest.
