Job Description

The School of Accountancy is seeking a Professor (up to 2) who will play a leadership role in the ongoing development of the research culture of the School and who will foster excellence in teaching and engagement.

The successful candidate will demonstrate exceptional leadership, mentor junior staff and connect researchers. The School expects that Professors will engage with stakeholders external to the School and make a substantial contribution to research funding.

Applications from individuals qualified to teach and research in any of the areas of the School would be welcomed, however particular focus will be given to applications received in one (or more) of the following discipline areas: audit, financial accounting or management accounting.
