Position Overview

The Accounting Department in the University of Kansas School of Business seeks applicants for multiple faculty positions. The search is open at the Assistant, Associate or Full Professor levels with an emphasis on Associate and Full Professors. Appointment at a particular level will be based on an applicant's scholarly and teaching record. Research should be focused on publication in the most highly regarded journals. Positions are full-time, academic year, tenure-track or tenured, beginning August 18, 2020.

All areas in the field of accounting will be considered. Candidates with an interest in or a demonstrated ability to mentor doctoral students are encouraged to apply. In a continuing effort to enrich its academic environment and provide equal educational and employment opportunities, the university actively encourages applications from members of underrepresented groups in higher education. Women, minorities, and candidates who will contribute to the climate of diversity in the school, including a diversity of scholarly approaches, are especially encouraged to apply.

The successful candidate must have appropriate authorization to work in the U.S. by time of appointment.

Job Description

40% - Teach required and elective courses in the undergraduate, MBA, MACC, and doctoral programs within the area of Accounting. Normal teaching responsibilities are four sections each academic year. Reduced/consolidated teaching opportunities are available at the various ranks.

40% - Conduct and publish research on accounting topics in leading academic journals.

20% - Engage in school, university, and professional service activities as needed.

Required Qualifications

A Ph.D. or D.B.A. in accounting.

Demonstrated ability or potential to conduct high quality research and publish in top tier journals.

A demonstrated record of effective teaching in area of accounting at the undergraduate and/or graduate level.

Evaluation of these requirements will be made through application materials.
