positions at the level of Assistant, Associate and Full Professor levels with a breadth and width of experience in Business Management. Successful candidates will have demonstrated teaching, and research abilities appropriate to the rank of their application in the related fields of Business Management..

ACK is one of Kuwait's leading academic institutions that offer learning opportunities in the disciplines of Aviation, Business and Engineering studies. ACK is committed to becoming a pioneer in providing analytical and hands-on skills for its students. ACK focuses on innovative teaching and learning methodologies that in turn impact on our students' thinking approach towards problem solving and project-based learning. Furthermore, ACK aims to foster the building of a sustainable research and development environment dedicated to contributing to wider society and aspects of economic development that are aligned to the New Kuwait 2035 Vision.

When you join ACK you can expect a career nourishing experience where career paths are defined, professional development opportunities specified and employee effort recognized. For all of these reasons and more ACK is accredited by the Investors in People organization, which is a mark of high performance in respect to organizational and people management.

ACK is dedicated to attracting the highest caliber faculty from across the world in order to continue offering a multicultural experience for our students, faculty and staff.

To this end, ACK seeks experienced faculty members that are keen to be part of this dynamic institution that matches the above-mentioned academic ranks to join the School of Business - Business Management Department, potentially commencing February 14th, 2021. At this stage, priority will be given to candidates who are Ph.D. holders with expertise in accountancy, entrepreneurship, business planning, HRM and leadership; however, other candidates with expertise in other fields of Business Management are encouraged to apply. Screening of applications will begin immediately and will continue until all the positions are filled.

Preference will be given to the candidates who are seen to combine excellence in teaching with a demonstrated capacity to conduct interdisciplinary research that will expand and complement our current research program. Moreover, candidates with prior administrative skills and experience within accredited academic organizations will be preferable for the ranking of Associate or Full Professor.

Essential Qualifications and Experience:

- Applicant must have a Bachelor, Master (if any) and Ph.D. degrees in Business Management or related fields preferably with appropriate work experience in university or industry;
