The profile and stature of the UB School of Management is on the rise. The school has been ranked by the Financial Times, Forbes, U.S. News & World Report and The Wall Street Journal for the quality of its programs and the return on investment it provides its graduates. This past year UB ranked as a top-40 MBA program by Bloomberg Businessweek. The Accounting department has a very competitive MS program. Student pass rates on the CPA exam are typically the highest among the ten largest programs in the state of New York. Approximately 90% of MS graduates have employment by the time they graduate.

Buffalo has received top rankings in multiple categories as a place to live (e.g. <http://www.forbes.com/sites/erincarlyle/2014/03/11/americas-most-affordable-cities/><http://www.forbes.com/sites/erincarlyle/2014/03/11/americas-most-affordable-cities/>). Located on Lake Erie, less than 25 miles from Niagara Falls and a short distance from Toronto, Buffalo is a city featuring world-class art galleries and museums (American Style ranked Buffalo as the #1 arts destination for all mid-size cities), impressive architecture and many inviting parks and outdoor recreation areas. These features, its affordability, and its economic and cultural revitalization, make the region an inviting place to call home.

Applicants for non-tenure track Clinical Assistant/Associate Professor: 1) must hold by fall term 2021 a graduate degree (doctorate or master) with concentration in Accounting and 2) must have significant amount of professional experience working in a CPA firm. Applicants for the position will play a significant role in the delivery and development of both the undergraduate and graduate curriculum and professional development of accounting students and be actively engaged in strengthening the department's relationship with the accounting profession.

To be considered all applicants must register at the University at Buffalo human resources website at <http://www.ubjobs.buffalo.edu><http://www.ubjobs.buffalo.edu>. The University at Buffalo is an affirmative action, equal opportunity employer. The University is dedicated to the goal of building a culturally diverse and pluralistic faculty and staff committed to teaching and working in a diverse environment, and strongly encourage applications from women, minorities, individuals with disabilities, and veterans to apply. The School of Management seeks candidates whose research, teaching, and service has prepared them to contribute to our commitment to diversity and inclusion, and who have a record of success in mentoring individuals from groups underrepresented in higher education.
