Job Description

The School of Aviation at Auburn University invites applications for a 9-month, non-tenure track limited term contingent on funding Professor of Practice who specializes in airport planning, operations, and management.

The selected candidate will be responsible for teaching the following courses: AVMG 3500 (Airport Operations), AVMG 4130 (Airport Management), and AVMG 4140 (Airport Planning and Design). This individual will also work with local emergency response agencies to plan and coordinate an annual disaster drill in the spring as part of the coursework for AVMG 3500.

This position is part of a group hire to build a foundation of full-time faculty within the School of Aviation. We seek a colleague who can help build the program and contribute to our commitment to train the next generation of aviation professionals.
