The Department of Management Studies invites applications for

Postdoctoral Researcher in Organizational behavior/ People management / HRM (fixed-term position for 3 years)

We are now looking for a junior academic interested in research in organizational behavior, people management and / or human resource management. The position is within the Organizations and Management discipline at the Department of Management Studies.

Our expectations

The postdoctoral position is intended to allow the chosen researcher to pursue their research agenda and to develop personal competencies. We expect the candidate to conduct high quality research and aim to publish in the best international journals relevant to their research. The position is associated with a low teaching load; that is, one course per year. In addition, the position includes master's thesis supervision and an opportunity to be involved in doctoral training.

Your experience and ambitions

We look for scholars who are completing, or have completed within the past four years, their doctoral studies in a relevant field of study. The applicants should have demonstrated the ability to conduct research independently, to publish in high-quality scholarly journals and to teach competently. The positions require fluent skills in the English language.

Post-doctoral researcher is required to be in residence for the duration of the appointment. The starting date of the employment relationship can be negotiated, ideally commencing in August 2024.

What we offer

This Postdoctoral Researcher position is fixed-term position for 3 years (with possible extension up to 4 years). The expected starting salary for a Postdoctoral Researcher is approximately 4305,60 €/month (income before deduction of taxes), depending on experience and qualifications. As an employer, Aalto University provides excellent learning and development opportunities as well as occupational health care services, versatile exercise services and other employee benefits. *

Meaningful and inspiring environment. We are proud of our purpose to shape a sustainable future. We spark the game changers of tomorrow, and renew society with research-based knowledge, creativity and an entrepreneurial mindset. ^{Posted Feb. 2, 2024, set to expire Dec. 30, 2024}

Culture that inspires and includes everyone. All our work is guided by the values of the university: responsibility, courage, and collaboration. It's the people that create Aalto, now and in the future. We want to be an open community where equality and inclusion enable curiosity, innovation, collaboration and wellbeing. *

Responsible and meaningful role with true impact in our University's/ School's success, and in the end, in the wellbeing and development of our society. *

Support, coaching and sparring when you feel you need it. *

Great possibilities for competence development and learning. We constantly keep learning to find the most impactful ways to empower - and invest in - our people.

Our vast array of professional development opportunities means you will grow and learn, having the chance to participate actively in staff trainings and development projects based on your interests and needs.

We work in a hybrid way, and the primary workplace is Otaniemi, Espoo. The Otaniemi campus is a thriving and connected community of 100 nationalities, 13,000 students and 4,500 employees. Life at the transformed campus is vibrant and filled with amazing architecture, calming nature, and a variety of cafes, restaurants, services and good connections along the recently opened metro line.
