Main roles & responsibilities

As a key member of the Academic Affairs, the successful candidate will be required to be present in Dubai and on the university campus during the working hours. They will be responsible for:

- Teaching Excellence: Delivering engaging and effective advanced courses using online learning platforms and cutting-edge smart technologies.
- Curriculum Development: Developing instructional materials and e-content for courses in the field of Quality Management and courses within their expertise.
- Mentorship: Supervising, advising, and mentoring learners throughout their academic journey and during the completion of their Ph.D. dissertations.
- Professional Development: Developing and delivering professional short courses and workshops tailored to target groups and professional communities.
- Research Excellence: Contributing to the academic landscape by publishing research in high-quality Scopus-indexed journals.
- Research Grants: Crafting proposals and applying for research grants relevant to Quality Management or related disciplines.
- Administrative Duties: Performing necessary administrative duties as required to support our academic programs.

Required qualification & skills

To thrive in this role, you should possess the following qualifications and skills:

- A Ph.D. degree from an accredited university, with a quantitative background relevant to Quality Management.
- A proven track record of successful teaching experience in an internationally accredited university.
- Preferred experience in an online/e-learning environment.
- The ability to integrate industry experience and insights into the curriculum and classroom.
- A talent for developing and delivering professional workshops.
- Demonstrated access to a professional network to secure research grants, engage industry stakeholders in the learning experience, and foster collaboration with organizations.
- Proficiency in academic English is essential.
- Strong leadership skills, with a collaborative team-oriented approach.
