For appointment to the Lecturer rank, a minimum of a Master qualification in Accounting is required along with two years' experience of Higher Education (HE) teaching. For the SL rank, a minimum of a PhD in Accounting or closely related field is required from an accredited university, ideally UK based and AACSB accredited, good research profile, and a minimum of three years' post-doctoral HE teaching (including at master's level). Exceptional candidates with recognised professional qualifications and substantial industry &/or professional experiences including at least five years HE teaching & research experience can be considered for a Senior Lecturer rank. Experience of the UK HE sectors and/or the Omani and GCC HE environments would be an advantage, as would strong links to industry, and experience of an international context. In addition to teaching, the post-holder at the SL level will be responsible for developing and supervising research projects, enhancing collaborative activities with industry and practicing leading-edge research through an international publication record.

The overall economic landscape in The Sultanate of Oman has been constantly improving over the years due to progressive governmental plans, policies and strong regulations. Human capital and research are key pillars underpinning these efforts in the national level and Muscat University is well-placed to play an important role as facilitator through its vision to empower individuals and communities through transformative learning and teaching, informative research, and proactive industry engagement in Oman and the GCC region.

Possessing an ACCA qualification and/or ACCA Experience is desirable and will be given preference.

We acknowledge, understand, and embrace diversity and expect joining faculty to display and apply the same principles.

Key Duties and Responsibilities

- Deliver high-quality teaching experience on Audit, Professional Ethics, Business Tax, Tax Policy and Personal Tax, and Strategic Management Accounting modules at the undergraduate and postgraduate level.
- Construct, plan, and assess student assignments.
- Liaise with the Faculty Director on all student matters including timetabling, academic and technical support.
- Undertake the role of Student Advisor/Personal Tutor.
- Undertake research and scholarly activity with a view to publishing in refereed international academic journals.
