The Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences is creating an environment that affirms community across all dimensions. We particularly welcome applicants who can contribute to such an environment through their scholarship, teaching, mentoring, and professional service. If an accommodation due to a disability is needed to apply for this position, please call 352-392-2477 or the Florida Relay System at 800-955-8771 (TDD) or visit Accessibility at UF.

You Belong at a University that's Leading the Way

The Florida Cooperative Extension Service is a partnership between state, federal, and county governments to provide scientific knowledge and expertise to the public. The University of Florida (UF), together with Florida A&M University (FAMU), administers the Florida Cooperative Extension Service.

At UF, Extension is located in the Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences (IFAS), the College of Agricultural and Life Sciences (CALS) and the Florida Agricultural Experiment Station, and UF/IFAS Extension.

UF/IFAS is a federal, state, and county partnership dedicated to developing knowledge in agriculture, human and natural resources, and the life sciences and to making that knowledge accessible to sustain and enhance the quality of human life. The UF/IFAS mission is accomplished through extension faculty members, scientists, educators, administrative staff, and volunteers working cohesively throughout Florida's 67 counties.

The Opportunity

University of Florida/IFAS Extension and Nassau County seek to fill a 12-month, permanent status-accruing Family and Consumer Sciences Extension Agent position. Nassau County, an urbanizing county in northeast Florida, with both resort/beach and rural communities, wishes to hire an individual to improve the economic well-being, health, and wellness among Nassau County residents of different socio-economic backgrounds.

You will collaborate with faculty in other program areas in carrying out programs in agriculture, natural resources, Florida-Friendly Landscaping™, and 4-H Youth Development. You will also devote 5% of your effort to 4-H Youth Development in your area of expertise.

You will follow all University of Florida and Nassau County policies and procedures and will perform other duties as assigned by the County Extension Director and Northeast District Extension Director.

What you are responsible for:

- Develop, implement, maintain, and evaluate comprehensive county Family and Consumer Sciences program in cooperation with local citizens, organizations, volunteers, businesses, agencies, and county/state extension colleagues.
- Use resourcefulness, creativity, enthusiasm, and innovation to strengthen educational programs while reviewing and implementing new policies, maintaining records, managing financial resources, assessing risks, communicating, marketing effectively across social media platforms, and creating education materials and opportunities for Nassau County.
- Establish a local advisory committee to assess clientele needs and guide program development.
- Work with clientele as a subject-matter expert and provide technical expertise – through teaching and one-on-one consultations – in relation to Family and Consumer Sciences topics.
- Collaborate with agencies and organizations, including the local health department, concerned with the needs and well-being of area citizens, youth, and families to provide proactive educational programming for residential and commercial audiences.
- Respond to clients in a timely and professional manner.
- Participate in appropriate professional organizations.
- Develop a financial plan to acquire funding to support your programs that may include contracts, grants, sponsorships, and subscriptions that follow UF regulations and UF accounting standards.
- Attend and contribute to professional meetings, in-service trainings, and actively seek out professional development opportunities.
- Create and follow a professional development plan.
- Follow all UF/IFAS Extension policies regarding affirmative action, program development, and reporting.
- Attaining promotion and permanent status per state extension faculty guidelines.

Other assignments and responsibilities will be carried out in support of the total Extension program. The successful candidate will follow all university and county policies and procedures. Additional duties may be assigned by the County Extension Director or District Extension Director.

In addition, the county faculty member must possess good verbal, written and listening communication skills; have qualities of resourcefulness, creativity, enthusiasm, and innovativeness; and have good organizational development and management skills. Knowledge and experience with computer technology and social media are essential.

The agent's primary work location is the Rebecca L. Jordi Cooperative Extension Office at 85831 Miner
