Worcester Polytechnic Institute - WPI

JOB DESCRIPTION SUMMARY

The Business School at Worcester Polytechnic Institute (WPI) invites applications for a full-time, teaching-track Assistant Professor position in Information Systems and Technologies (IST), starting August 15, 2025 (with the possibility of a January 2025 start).

The ideal candidate will hold a PhD in Information Systems or a closely related field, with research interests in areas such as information security, project management, and/or business analytics with applications in organizations. The successful applicant will be expected to teach both undergraduate and graduate courses, specifically courses in Information Security Management, Innovating with Information Systems, Project Management, and potentially Data Management.

The position includes expectations for research leading to publications in high-quality, refereed journals, and WPI provides strong support for research and teaching. Service to the department, university, and professional community is also expected, including participation in committees and advising projects.

JOB DESCRIPTION

WPI's Business School is building a strong national reputation in analytics and technology-focused business disciplines. We offer four undergraduate majors (including IST), six master's degrees, and a PhD program (with a concentration in IT), and we actively contribute to WPI's interdisciplinary programs in Data Science. Faculty members enjoy a collaborative, innovative environment with outstanding students and support for both teaching and research.

WPI is a highly selective, private, technological university, consistently ranked among the top 70 research institutions by US News & World Report. Located one hour west of Boston in Worcester, Massachusetts—a growing hub for scientific and technological innovation—WPI fosters a diverse and inclusive environment. The university promotes multidisciplinary collaboration among faculty, students, and partners, and supports meaningful, real-world projects and research that embody the WPI experience. We seek candidates who will contribute to our commitment to equity, diversity, and inclusion. We are looking for candidates who can support our commitment to equity, diversity, and inclusion.

Qualified applicants should submit (1) a letter of application, (2) a curriculum vitae, (3) a statement of teaching interests, (4) A statement on how the candidate will contribute to WPI's commitment to
