Job Description

Building on the recommendations of the Anti-Black Racism Campus Climate Review, TMU has implemented this program to expand and advance Black scholarship and intellectual traditions, and support the academic endeavours of the Black community.

Fellowship Details:

- Available fellowships: up to four (4) beginning September 1, 2025
- Amount: $70,000/year plus benefits
- Duration: 24 months
- Field: Open
- Deadline to apply: March 31, 2025
- Decision: July 2025

Eligibility

- Scholars who self-identify as Black (of African descent; for example, Africans and African heritage people from the Caribbean, Americas, Europe).
- Completion of a PhD or PhD-equivalent within the last three years prior to the application deadline, or PhD expected by the planned start date of the fellowship.
- Can hold the fellowship by September 1, 2025 for two years.
- Successful applicants must be eligible to work in Canada by the start of the Postdoctoral position. International applicants may apply; however, successful international applicants will require a work permit and Canadian Social Insurance Number in order to take up the postdoctoral position. Exceptional start dates may be negotiated in relation to the permit and visa process timelines.
- Applicants must be associated with a current or proposed supervisor who holds a tenured or tenure-track faculty position at TMU. Applications must include a letter of support from the proposed supervisor.
- This funding cannot be held concurrently with another major fellowship.
- Applicants cannot hold a faculty position or be on leave from such a position.
- Applicants cannot hold, or have previously held a TMU Postdoctoral Fellowship for Black Scholars.
