Overview

The Paul Dickinson School of Business of Oklahoma Baptist University invites applicants for the tenure track position of Assistant or Associate Professor of Accounting, responsible for teaching both introductory and advanced accounting courses in the standard undergraduate accounting curriculum. Depending on qualifications, development and teaching at the graduate level may also occur. The ability to teach in a secondary area such as finance or data analytics is desirable.

The Paul Dickinson School of Business seeks to prepare innovative leaders with spiritual and moral values, purpose, imagination, and vision to move into the 21st century and the everchanging business world, all within the context of Oklahoma Baptist University's liberal arts curriculum.

Essential Functions

- Teach accounting courses at the undergraduate and graduate levels
- Serve as academic advisor to students as assigned
- Participate in recruitment activities of the Paul Dickinson School of Business; collaborate with the Chair, Dean, and Admissions in recruitment and retention activities

Other Duties

- Serve on University committees as assigned
- Assist with the assessment process and accreditation reporting for the accounting major
- Provide departmental duties as assigned
- Work collaboratively with colleagues, and activate professional networks to provide students with guided, real-world opportunities
