Job Description

The Sheldon B. Lubar School of Business at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee has the following positions:

Associate/Full Professor of Accounting -- Specialization in Financial or Audit -- 3907

This is a full-time, tenured Accounting Professor, with expertise in Financial Accounting and/or Auditing, to start in the Fall of 2010.

The qualified candidate will hold a Ph.D. in Business Administration or a closely related field, with an outstanding research record, to include publications in leading Accounting journals and show evidence of teaching excellence.

Preference will be given to candidates who are recognized nationally and internationally for leadership in Accounting research, have a wealth of Accounting experience and exhibit dedication to teaching excellence.

In addition to the normal expectations of faculty (advise students, research and serve on assigned faculty committees), this tenured professor will be expected to provide a leadership role in directing a new Ph.D. degree in Accounting, with an intended start in 2011.

Assistant Professor of Accounting -- Specialization in Tax -- 4085

This is a full-time, tenure-track faculty position in Accounting --specializing in Tax -- at the Assistant Professor level, starting in August 2010.

Qualified candidates must have an earned doctorate in Business Administration or a closely related field and have strong research potential and excellent teaching experience, as evidenced in teaching evaluations.

Preferred qualifications include: CPA certification, quality conference presentations and accounting practice experience.

The selected candidate will be expected to teach undergraduate and graduate courses in Taxation, research, serve on assigned faculty committees and advise students.

Assistant/Associate Professor of Management -- Specialization in International Business -- 3840
This is a full-time, tenure-track faculty position in International Business, at the Assistant or Associate Professor level, starting in August 2010.

Qualified candidates must hold a Ph.D. in a Business related field or be expected to complete the Ph.D. by August 2010, specialize in International Business and exhibit strong research potential.

Preference will be given to qualified candidates who have publications in quality journals and/or a strong research pipeline, presentations at top international conferences and excellent teaching experience, as evidenced in evaluations.

The selected candidate will teach undergraduate and graduate courses in International Management, advise students and perform faculty committee duties.

Publication in top-tier journals is expected and supported.

Assistant Professor of Management -- Specialization in Organizational Behavior -- 4072

This is a full-time, tenure-track faculty position in Management, with a specialization in Organizational Behavior, at the Assistant Professor level, starting in August 2010.

Qualified candidates must hold a Ph.D. in a Business related field or be expected to complete the Ph.D. by August 2010, exhibit potential to publish in top-tier journals and have experience in teaching.

Preference will be given to qualified candidates who have publications in quality journals and/or a strong research pipeline, quality presentations at top national and international conferences and excellent teaching record.

The School's current teaching needs are Organizational Behavior, Ethics and Business & Society.

The selected candidate will be expected to teach undergraduate and/or graduate courses, research, serve on assigned faculty committees and advise students.
